She was born June 22, 1922 in Winnsboro, South Carolina, and died

Notes for ALFONS ZINNER: Alfons changed his name to Sherman and had a residence in Connecticut and Switzerland and died many years ago along with his wife Margaret. He had a son Stratford and a daughter Caroline. Strat lives in Connecticut and Caroline lives in New York city. Strat has one son and one daughter and is married to Meridith.

Not absolutely certain answer to why my father changed his name. He was arrested in hamburg by the gestapo and incarcerated in gestapo prison for approximately 9 months in the 1938-39 time frame. the actual charges cannot be released due to german privacy laws; according to family lore, he committed a "race crime" by living intimately with a christian/aryan woman.

Allegedly my grandmother secured his release, whereupon my father went to France, crossed illegally into Spain, was captured, and sent to an internment camp in Spain. there, he was recruited into espionage by a visting american diplomat, who secured my father's release and had him sent to the US. There he joined the office of strategic services (OSS), and received, extraordinarily, immediate US citizenship during his brief training period. it was during this training period that my father changed his name, at a night court somewhere in the washington dc metro area. I would guess this was in 1940 or so. My father later claimed that his OSS work (distinguished counter-espionage work for which he received the bronze star) required the change of identity. this claim strikes me as dubious. More likely, the extremely traumatic experience of arrest and the gruesome circumstances of gestapo prison let him to regard his jewish identity and even his identity as a german, as perilous, burdensome, and unwanted. without question he was deeply concerned lest his children become vulnerable to violent antisemitism upon his return to the US in 1948 or 49, he claimed, even to my sister and me, that he was french and a unitarian; both Caroline and I were raised as protestant christians, according to the tradition of my mother's south carolina family. (by the way, my mother was also in the OSS)

e-mail from Strat Sherman doing secretarial work, and it was through that work that she met my father in paris shortly after the city was liberated from nazi occupation...another note: my father served, with considerable satisfaction, as an investigator for the nuremberg trials.)

Notes for STRATFORD SHERMAN: Control Your Destiny or Someone Else Will by Noel M. Tichy and Stratford Sherman HarperBusiness, $15

Stratford Sherman has been writing about GE in Fortune Magazine for many years. From the picture of Jack Welch on the cover to the significant space given over to his direct quotes on the inside, it's CEO megalomania all the way. Ordinarily that would be a formula for failure in a business book. But this time it's working. Control Your Destiny, in stores for about 9 weeks, is in its 5th printing with 70,000 copies published.
